Student Body officers at Torrance High School for the fall semester were announced this week. Elections were held during the final weeks of the spring term. Heading the THS council will be Ray Bynum, while Earl Yanase will assume the duties of Vice-President.

Other Student Council members are Judy Minor, Student Court Judge; Charlene Alarcon, Commissioner of Finance; Sharon Radi, Pep; Nancy Hornbeck, Activities; Mary Lou Howe, Records; Frances Adams, Publicity; Pat Piercy, Group Control; and Bob Sonju, Athletics.

SENIOR CLASS president is Roxanne Barnard, who will be aided by Sharon Radi, vice president; Jonova Weingarten, secretary; Sharon Mascola, treasurer; Susan Mathis, girls' court representative; and Sharon Campbell, girl's league representative.

Danny George will head the junior class. Carol Waggoner is the new vice president. Other junior class officers are Ruth Emrich, treasurer; Martha Wood, secretary; Ivor Samson, boys' court representative; Andra Silver, girls' court representative; and Loretta Linderman, girls' league representative.

THE SOPHOMORE Class president will be Joyce Bynum. She will be assisted by vice president Vicki Gilliard, and Denise Cedarburg, secretary; Linda Potter, treasurer; Glenn Mackett, boys' court representative; Judy Bynum, girls' court representative; Hark Mark, boys' league representative; and Lannng Tamura, girls' court representative.

LORETTA KENNEY was elected president of the Girls' League, while other officers are Sharonne Mascola, vice-president; Marcel Cook, secretary; Nancy Sullivan, treasurer; and Joyce Miyamoto, historian-reporter.

Boys' League president is Fred Sachs. Chris Patrick will take over the vice-president's duties, and other officers are Mike Sullivan, secretary; and Richard Hollins, treasurer.

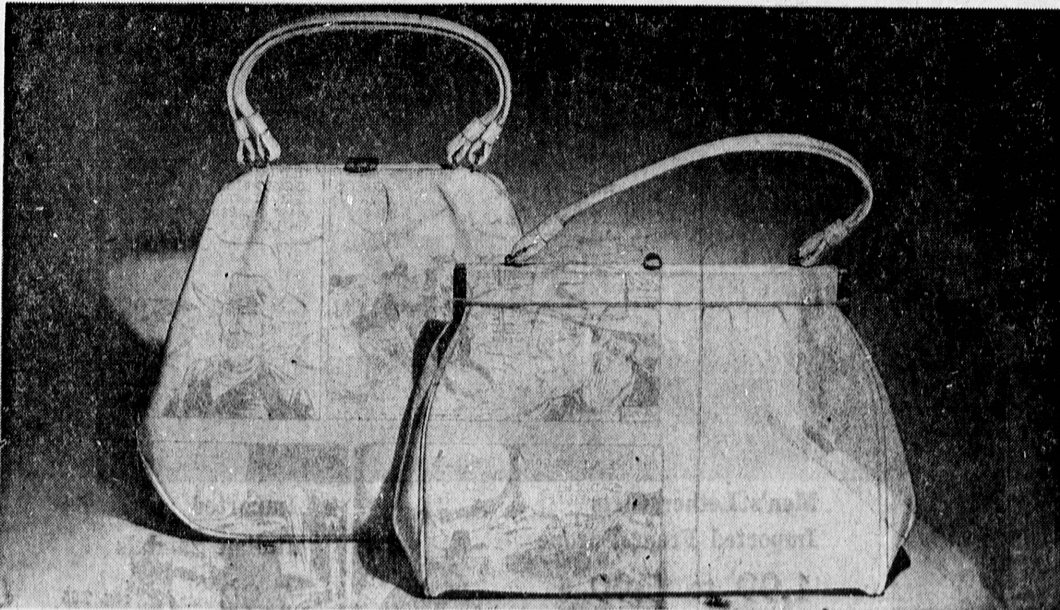

Measles continued to lead the field of reportable diseases in Torrance for the week ending June 3, according to figures compiled by the County Health Department.

With nine cases on the books, measles led its closest rival, hepatitis, by a count of seven. Only other reportable diseases logged during the week was one case of gonococcal infection, and one of scarlet fever.
